Dear Jimmie:

Attached is a proposed reply to Captain Henry Kalty's request for a National Security Medal to be used for display purposes.

I am sorry this took so long; however our expert has been out of the country and since this was the first request of this nature received, I wanted to be sure we did the right thing.

Incidentally, for your information the gold in these medals alone is worth about $100.00.

Sincerely,

JOINED

Dear Captain Kelty:

Thank you for your letter of 30 August 1960 requesting that you be furnished a National Security Medal for display at the Contigny War Memorial Museum.

I am pleased to note your interest in this particular medal, but unfortunately am unable to furnish one for display purposes. Current policy prevents issuance of this medal to other than actual recipients.

It is regretted that I can not be more helpful in this matter.

Sincerely,

James S. Lay, Jr.

Dear Captain Kelty:

Thank you for your letter of 30 August 1960 requesting that you be furnished a National Security Medal for display at the Contigny War Memorial Museum.

I am very pleased to note your interest in this particular medal, but unfortunately am not able to forward you a medal for display purposes. This is due to the current policy which normally prevents issuance of this medal to other than actual recipients.

I regret not being able to be more helpful in this matter. Please feel free to write me again if you feel that I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

John S. Lay, Jr.
Executive Secretary
